Theresa Mather Artist Guest of Honor

Fantasy artist Theresa Mather's portrayals of dragons, animals and nature have won her numerous awards, including Popular Choice Best of Show at the 2002 World Science Fiction Convention. Mather showcases her fantasy art at science fiction convention exhibitions across the United States, purposefully eschewing publication.

A professional artist since 1989, Mather's work outside of the fantasy realm focuses on restoring the art that adorns antique carousels. Her scenery panels can be seen at in Chase Palm Park, Santa Barbara; Eastridge Mall, San Jose; and Fairgrounds Square Mall, Reading, PA.

Mather draws much of her inspiration from the world around her, which has given her paintings a Southwestern flair. The artist lives with her husband Barry in Cedar City, Utah, near Bryce Canyon, Zion National Park and Capital Reef National Park, which imbues her work with natural colors and textures on objects such as feathers and stone.

Her work can be seen at www.rockfeatherscissors.com.
